

When His Actions are Speaking Louder than Words

VICTIM'S HOPE SPOTLIGHT ON: Alliance Against Family Violence and Sexual Assault

Kern County's detention deputies salute the good work the Alliance Against Family Violence and Sexual Assault provides to victims.

24-Hour Hotline

(661) 327-1091

Outreach Center

(661) 322-0931

Toll Free

(800) 273-7713

In 2009, the Alliance provided a 24-hour hotline, emergency shelter, crisis intervention, community prevention education, and counseling services to over 17,500 women, children and men in Kern County.

Call the Alliance at 322-0931 to learn how you can help them strengthen our community one step at a time.

He tells me

...he LOVES me.

...it won't happen AGAIN.

...he's SORRY.

It's time to call the Alliance.

24-hour hotline: (661) 327-1091

Kern County Detention Officers Association

PROFESSIONALLY TRAINED | COST EFFECTIVE | PROVEN

Learn more at KCDOA.org

You may not know us by name, but rest assured, we play an important role in keeping Kern County's jail system secure. We're the 350 members of the Kern County Detention Officers Association. Detention Deputies process 40,000 new arrests each year and oversee a population of 2,500 inmates.

Our Victim's Hope campaign brings awareness to those non-profit organizations that are dedicated to helping victims of crimes.